STANDING OF THE CLUBS JULY 6, 190

By WILLIAM PEET.

The Philadelphia warriors, sixteen or twenty strong, slipped into our lovely village early yesterday morning and were handed the keys of the city. In the afternoon they handed us something else. the pennant-chasers three real hits. It wasn't a bunch of keys; it was a bunch of threes. No use talking, it doesn't pay to be too cordial with strangers. The score, before we forget to Cree's Triple in Fifth Wins Game mention it, was 3 to 2 in favor of the fortunate foemen.

The Athletics came along in the wake of the Bostons and were just as handday. Cree rapping out a three-bagger on your life.

Porter then grounded to short, and was put out at first, Cleveland taking second on the play. visitors made four hits, one a triple by The runner tallied on Mattingly's single over second, the latter scoring a few mo-ments later by stealing second, going to third on a passed ball, and reach second to first. The Episcopalians tallied their final run in the eighth, when McLaren reached first on a fielder's choice, stole second, and crossed the pan on Roger's error.

Mattingly, of Langdon, characterized himself in the fourth, when he jumped and snatched Miller's foul fly, and "Patty" Holmes' pie-eaters jumped into the feature column in the third, when Sheaffer nipped Porter's grounder to prompt return of the ball.

Manager Holmes was forced to harness up and get into the game for Hamline, hard at three wide ones and fanned.

Langdon A. C. Defeats Olympias The Langdon A. C., a team composed almost entirely of boys from Central, Business, and Tech, overwhelmingly defeated the Olympia A. C., of Langdon, in its initial game of the season by 22 to 0. The Olympias used four pitchers, but could not stop the heavy hitting of the Langdon boys.
